

CLAUDIO A. DALL'ACQUA

Specialist Consultant

Areas of Expertise

- Risk Management
- Management Consulting
- International Contracting and Management
- Construction Management
- Engineering and Construction Management
- Procurement Management
- Business Administration

Background

Mr. Dall'Acqua is a Pegasus Global Holdings, Inc. Specialist Consultant. Mr. Dall'Acqua has more than three decades of experience as a Civil Engineer and has extensive experience as a General Contractor in the construction industry and engineering special services. He has built more than two million square meters of diverse types of construction plants for Brazilian and multinational companies, governments, real estate contracts and others. He has post graduate studies in Business Administration and Engineering for Safety Work in Construction.

Mr. Dall'Acqua is also the Chairman and Principal Owner at DALL'ACQUA Engenharia e Construções Ltda., Brazil.

Mr. Dall'Acqua combines an extensive background in engineering jobs, as well as provides leadership in the Americas engineering community as the President of the Pan American Federation of Engineers Associations (UPADI) representing more than 2.5 million engineers in 27 countries.

Mr. Dall'Acqua has received several awards, medals and recognition diplomas of excellence during his professional career. He has participated in several dispute resolution cases and administrative boards. Currently, he is a member of the Arbitration Chamber of Instituto de Engenharia in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Education and Courses

Education

- Civil Engineer with Post Graduate Studies in Business Administration and Engineering for Safety Work in Construction

Languages

- English and Portuguese - proficient

Memberships

- Pan American Federation of Engineers Associations (UPADI)
 - President
- American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE)
 - Alternate Board Member
- Arbitration Chamber of Instituto de Engenharia